Reviewer Information Missing: In the Review of Perez and Brady's Principles and Practice of Radiation Oncology, published in the May 20, 2009, issue of JAMA (2009;301[19]:2047-2048), information for a reviewer was missing. The reviewer information provided on page 2048 should have included "Virginia Diavolitsis, MD, v-diavolitsis@md.northwestern.edu." Dr Diavolitsis is affiliated with the Department of Radiation Oncology at the Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center, Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Chicago, Illinois.

Affiliations Omitted: In the Commentary entitled "Health Impact Assessment: A Step Toward Health in All Policies," published in the July 15, 2009, issue of JAMA (2009;302[3]:315-317), affiliations information was omitted from the Additional Contributions section on page 317. The first sentence of that section should have read "We thank Andrew Dannenberg, MD, MPH (National Center for Environmental Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention), Rajiv Bhatia, MD, MPH (San Francisco Department of Public Health and the University of California, San Francisco), and Aaron Wernham, MD, MS (Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium), for their significant contributions to this Commentary."

Art has something to do with the achievement of stillness in the midst of chaos. A stillness which characterizes prayer, too, and the eye of the storm . . . an arrest of attention in the midst of distraction.

—Saul Bellow (1815-2005)
