

VISUALIZING HEALTH POLICY
Kaiser Family Foundation*

THE WASHINGTON POST/KAISER FAMILY FOUNDATION SURVEY OF IRAQ AND AFGHANISTAN ACTIVE DUTY SOLDIERS AND VETERANS

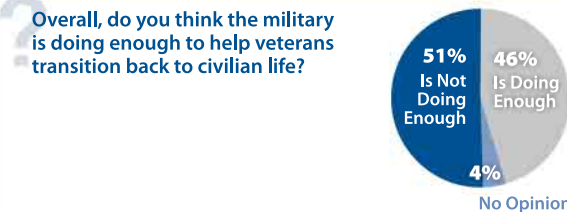

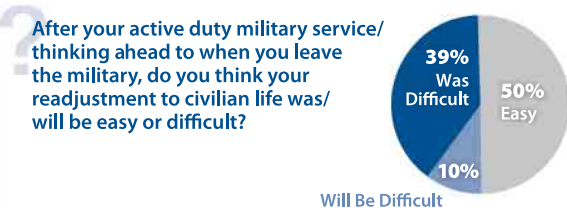

Percentage Saying Their Physical/Mental and Emotional Health Is Worse Compared With Before the Wars

Many Soldiers and Veterans Say They Know Someone Who Has Attempted or Died by Suicide

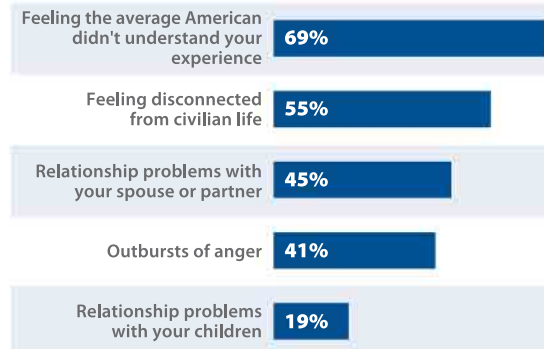

Transitioning Back to Civilian Life Can Be Difficult and Many Say Support Is Not There

Many Feel Disconnected, Not Understood

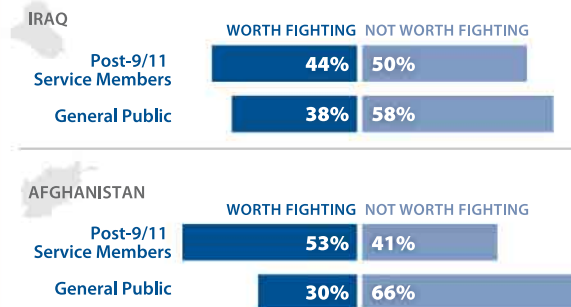

How often have you experienced the following as a result of your military service?

Percentage saying that they at least sometimes experience the following as a result of military service:

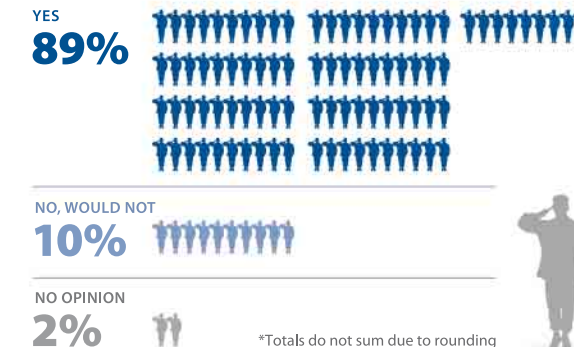

The Majority Say the War in Afghanistan Was Worth Fighting

All in all, do you think the war in Iraq/Afghanistan has been worth fighting?

Nine in 10 Would Do It Again

Considering everything you now know about military service, if you had the chance to make the decision again, would you choose to join the military?

Source: Kaiser Family Foundation (<http://kff.org>) and The Washington Post. Original data, source information available at http://kff.org/JAMA_07-23-2014.

*Produced by: Bianca DiJulio, MHS; Mollyann Brodie, PhD; Anne Jankiewicz; and David Rousseau, MPH.